RE: Claim No. 1137128
Citigroup Common Stock

Gentlemen:

I am at a complete loss of your rejection of my claim & loss – that I suffered on Citigroup stock which was purchased and sold within the time periods that were given on the claim forms.

I have previously been involved in other class action claims, and as long as one was within the parameters of time allowed the claim was valid.

To act otherwise would be a perversion of justice that I believe the court would have never permitted.

As such I consider my claim a valid one.

Sincerely,

Ilse Lang
